A Message from Chairman, Buddy Bishop

I'VE NEVER BEEN TO THE ADVANCE BEFORE

I'll be honest. I've never been to the Advance before. Despite making an effort to "Keep the Republic" and serving as an officer in the Goochland Unit; party apparatus and republican machinery simply didn't rank very high on my list. This is mainly because I'm an ideologue. I'm interested in the why and what and underpinnings of what conservatism and the American Republic was intended to be and what it currently is.

But now I'm a chairman and I have certain duties and responsibilities. With this comes the need-to-know other unit chairmen and see where our Goochland unit can interact and collaborate and learn from other units so that perhaps we can improve our efforts in Goochland.

The main thing I was interested in was in attending the special "training session" for new unit chairman. The RPV apparently has never done this kind of thing before. I can't say that they hit the ground running and knocked it out of the park so to speak, but it was useful. I found their related efforts regarding data and data management to be on point. There is a lot of improvements needed in how things can be done – but at least they are aware of how poor it's been in the past and are very open to making efforts to fix a number of frustrations with their GOP Data Center tool. Some of the suggestions we are already doing. Some may emerge as time goes on. But the main thing I liked was in connection to one of the items I know to matter to the ongoing success of the unit and that is building and organizing things so that they are in place and ready to go as the chairman and the other committee roles change (as they should) over time.

The highlight overall was Winsome Sears reception presentation. I managed to get of video it to share later with the committee after I have time to upload it.

So, will I go again? Probably if it's relevant to my activity to the committee going forward.

Should just anyone go? I think that if you are a unit committee member, you might want to plan and consider going at least once. You'll have the opportunity to meet people you wouldn't meet otherwise and hear things you might not otherwise get to hear. With this you'll likely find that you'll bring back what you encountered to the Goochland committee and propose, motion, or simply ask "Why aren't we doing - or – What about (fill in the blank)?"

In any event, this election year is a critical one of preparation and organization for next year. That's when nearly everything we've taken for granted and in fact relied upon since the inception of the 2012 era Goochland Revolution is rebooted and largely reconstituted with 15 or so races. Most of which are almost entirely local.

The Advance will be in Richmond next year. It may well be the Advance you should consider attending. Within the next year, many of us who have been members for a while will find that we are doing new things as committee members. And many new members will be doing work they have never done before. I think we can work effectively together to make Goochland the best place to live and (if you're lucky) work as "Goochlanders" and Americans. Advancing, as they say to not just the mid-terms, but to a permanently Red Goochland and Virginia as well.

A Message from Committee Member, John D. Myers

MIRROR, MIRROR ON THE WALL, WHO IS THE STUPIDEST OF THEM ALL?

When we common sense conservatives look into a mirror, we not only see our smiling faces, but we see ourselves as we really are. We see our life experiences, we see our successes, our shortcomings, our good times and bad. We see our beliefs and values. If the person we see in that mirror is someone we really wish was different, we know within ourselves that we are who we are because of the choices we make.

Liberals on the other hand don't necessarily see who they truly are when checking out their mugs in that glass with the metallic coating in back. They see who they want to be seen as, often someone with no relation to reality. These "woke" people really think that they are intellectually, morally and ethically superior to the rest of us. Ever notice the expression and voice tone of a liberal change the moment that you acknowledge that you are a conservative Republican? It's as if you suddenly sprouted horns and a tail.

What makes a person liberal? First of all, liberals are idealistic, not realistic. For instance, the most idiotic theory and scam currently being perpetuated by our "superior" fellow citizens is climate change. This is the Holy Grail of liberalism, not only here in the U.S., but worldwide. Everyone who dares to disagree with them are labeled Climate Change Deniers. We on the Right do not deny that the mean earth temperature and weather is changing, just as it has over the past 10 million to 50 million years (depending upon which "scientist" you believe). We can read a thermometer just as well as anyone. However what we disagree on is man's contribution, if any, to the condition (notice I did not use the term problem). And what's more, we surely disagree that giving up more of our money and our freedoms to government will have a snowball's chance in Hell of changing anything, especially the weather. That look into the mirror tells them they are looking at someone who is concerned about our planet. When we look in that mirror, we see someone who is not nearly that foolish. In that mirror they see someone who is helping to heal the earth. When we take a gander at ourselves, we see someone who recognizes that climate change is a big scam to redistribute wealth and give more power to government. They look at climate change as man's work. We look at it as God's work.

Liberals peek into the mirror and see a compassionate person. That passion is demonstrated in their minds, by allowing those "poor, destitute and helpless" people escape from their country into ours. It is not prosecuting those underprivileged people who have to commit "minor" crimes in an attempt to have basic necessities. It is giving permanent financial assistance to all who they deem needy. Compassion is meaningless, and dangerous if it is misguided.

Conservatives have a different take when seeing their image in the looking glass in respect to compassion. We see someone who looks at those people crossing our borders illegally as lawbreakers who pose a threat to our citizens, increase welfare and medical expenses and offer nothing to our country. Our compassion is for hard working, tax paying U.S. citizens who are often victimized by those illegal aliens while getting stuck with the tab for their care. Our compassion is also for the victims of the revolving door method of law enforcement, resulting from woke prosecutors and judges. We have empathy and compassion for the owners of many small businesses that go out of business because of people helping themselves to goods without paying. Compassion should be reserved for the deserving.

Looking in a mirror is a way of seeing yourself the way it would be captured with a camera. However, neither the mirror, nor the camera can capture who, or what is inside of you. A new mirror or a new camera cannot fix that. As I have said before, stupidity is an incurable disease (yes, if liberals can call alcoholism and drug addiction a disease, I can call stupidity a disease). Stupidity has all the worst characteristics of other diseases, but not necessarily the symptoms. Stupidity is hereditary and communicable. It can easily spread from one person to another, and can result in mass infections, sort of like a pandemic. Stupidity can cause misery, poverty, loneliness, pregnancy, failure to recognize different genders, unexplained euphoria over Hillary Clinton and death (e.g. Drunk driving accidents). Stupidity itself does not result in hives, fever, rash, diarrhea, incontinence, aching joints, hair loss, chills or hot flashes. It can cause people to do other things that result in these symptoms.

Wokeness is a severe form of stupidity. Woke people are not to be pitied. They are to be ridiculed, humiliated and loathed. The Woke are all dangerous. That is because woke people vote for woke politicians, and woke politicians are dangerous. So what is wokeness? Among the descriptors are over exaggerating social problems, the Cancel Culture, permissiveness, anti-religion and gender neutrality. Woke politicians advocate defunding the police, open borders, a welfare state, promoting climate change fear, taxing wealth (a second bite at the taxation apple) and non-punishment of criminals, including murderers, rapists, kidnapers and muggers. These people are sub stupid! When I refer to certain people, primarily liberal politicians, as idiots and morons, I am actually doing a disservice to idiots and morons. No self-respecting idiot or moron wants to be associated with the likes of Joe Biden, Chuck Schumer, Nancy Pelosi, Adam Schiff, AOC, Ilhan Omar, Ayanna Pressley or Rashida Tlaib.

So who are among the stupidest? I will make some nominations, but I am changing the names slightly in order to protect the guilty. See, I do have a heart! I will name them as woke people.

In no particular order:

- Joke Biden. (Joe is woke) and he is a joke
- Whoke Harris (Who** Woke) Hint: Joe an' de ho.
- Wokahontas Warren (Woke Pocahontas). President Trump gave Liz this name
- Choke Schumer (Chuck woke)
- Alexandria Wokasio Cortez (Woke Ocasio)
- Ilhan Wokmar (Woke Omar)
- Nancy Pewoksi (Pelosi woke)

This is by no means a comprehensive list of all the woke/stupid Democrats. Not even close. Over 100 Democrats in the U.S. House of Representatives are calling for a climate change emergency, with the intent of further stifling oil, coal and natural gas production. This, at the time of this writing, when the Russian invasion of The Ukraine is entering its second month of terror on civilians, including women and children. Petrochemical products in Europe and in the U.S. have skyrocketed. This is in addition to the 50% increase in gasoline prices due to Joke's attack on American energy that began on January 20, 2021. This, coupled to the border crisis, the debacle in Afghanistan, the failure to give assistance to The Ukraine as soon as the Russian threat began and other missteps are typical of stupid people.

So I ask you, who is the stupidest of them all (not restricted to the imbeciles above)?

John D. Myers,

Patriot and enemy to the stupid.

On what planet should a union that can endorse a presidential candidate be allowed to collect and deliver the ballots for that election?

Courthouse Village and Centerville Village Plans

Goochland County is Seeking Input

Posted on: April 4, 2022 <https://www.goochlandva.us/CivicAlerts.aspx?AID=814>

The surveys are part of a months-long process that kicked-off in February 2022 to create small area plans for each of the County's major villages.

The planning process for both villages aim to ensure that Goochland County elected officials' decisions relate to and are made in accordance with the desires of the community. The village plans will provide guidance for land use, economic and physical growth, recreation, public facilities, and community development. Once complete, these plans will be adopted and incorporated into the County's Comprehensive plan.

These surveys were developed based on input received from initial community meetings, roundtable discussions with local business owners, landowners, citizens and the development community and research by the consultant team. Now we need input from the Goochland community.

The survey will be available through the end of May and can be found on the Village Plans 2022 website at www.goochlandva.us/villageplans2022. For additional information on these small area plan efforts please visit the Goochland Village Plans 2022 website at www.goochlandva.us/villageplans2022 where you can find email contacts and phone numbers.

The political pendulum swings right as we head into mid-term elections

Minorities, young people, traditional demographics the Dems count on are turning away from radical left candidates

Republican Party of Virginia Announces Partnership with Virginia Latino National Republican Coalition

<https://virginia.gov/republican-party-of-virginia-announces-partnership-with-virginia-latino-national-republican-coalition/>

The Republican Party of Virginia is proud to announce that the Virginia Latino National Republican Coalition (LNRC-VA) will serve as the official coalition partner of the RPV for outreach to Virginia's Latino Community. The leaders at LNRC-VA know that the Republican Party is the only political party that stands for limited government, free markets, and traditional family values. Last November, Latino voters were instrumental in electing a Republican Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, and House majority who promised to defend those principles. Now, we are thrilled to work alongside the LNRC-VA to advance more conservative policies and take back the state senate in 2023.

GOP stepping up appeals to Black candidates, voters

<https://thehill.com/homenews/campaign/598813-gop-stepping-up-appeals-to-black-candidates-voters/>

Excerpt from The Hill (see link above for full article)

Eighty Black Republicans have filed this cycle alone to run in House races across the country, according to the National Republican Congressional Committee. Black Republicans are also hoping to make inroads in other races. In Georgia, Herschel Walker is running against incumbent Sen. Raphael Warnock (D-Ga.), and in Illinois, Richard Irvin, the first Black mayor of Aurora, is running in the GOP primary to challenge incumbent Gov. J.B. Pritzker (D).

There are two Black Republicans in the House, one in the Senate and none in a governor's mansion.

But the effort comes on the heels of Virginia Lt. Gov. Winsome Sears's (R) historic victory in November, when she became the first woman of color elected to statewide office in the commonwealth. Black Republicans, including Dels. A.C. Cordoza and Otto Wachsmann, also saw gains in the commonwealth's off-year election.

"The Black community is seeing momentum," said Paris Dennard, national spokesman and director of Black media affairs for the Republican National Committee (RNC). "They're seeing that Black Republicans can be elected."
